

WEDDING FORMAT

You will find below a standard Ceremony format which will help you get an idea of how it will all play out. Throughout our preparation for your day this format may change to better suit your personal preferences. It is your celebrants role to facilitate and deliver the perfect ceremony for you so if you have any suggestions or questions just let me know.

1. INTRODUCTION

Celebrant welcome and house keeping (ie mobile phones, fill seats etc)

2. PROCESSIONAL

Entry of individual or couple with the person/s who is giving them away

3. COUPLES STORY

The Celebrant presents a narrative and sets the scene

4. READING/POEM (if req)

A guest or Celebrant can present (see worksheet)

5. MONITUM (legal requirement)

From the Marriage act, Marriage is between two people.....

6. DECLARATION OF INTENT TO MARRY

This is often called the "Declaration of Marriage" which is a public declaration or the "I Dos!!"

7. AFFIRMATION BY GUEST

Guest are invited as a collective to support the couple in marriage or the "We dos!!"

8. VOWS (legal requirement)

Don't be nervous as you will read this from a palm card which I will provide, no memory or awkward repeat after me. (SEE VOWS AND RINGS WORKSHEET)

9. RING CEREMONY

Giving of rings provided by ring bearer. (SEE VOWS AND RINGS WORKSHEET)

10. THE DECLARATION

Proud to present to you.....You May Kiss!!! (hold the pose, this is a great photo and I guarantee you I will not be in it)

11. SIGNING OF THE REGISTER (legal requirement)

Couple and the witnesses sign the Marriage Register, The Certificate of Marriage and the Marriage Certificate.

12. READING/POEM (if req)

A guest or Celebrant can present (see worksheet)

13. WRAP UP, CONGRATULATIONS AND PRESENTATION OF COUPLE

Celebrant informs guest of whats next? Canapes, group photo etc then present couple with an agreed term, "Introducing....."

30 MINUTES DURATION TO HERE

14. CONGRATULATIONS CONGO LINE

Work this on 10 minutes per 50 guest. This bit can be avoided if you have limited photography time, ask me how.

15. GROUP PHOTO-If required, I will assist your photographer and videographer for group or family photos.
