Please take some time to fill out this out. It is also a fun activity if you do this individually and don't tell each other what you write ☺ tell the story with some detail, use mates names or nicknames and tell me like its over a beer.

It doesn't have to be a novel but give me some good stuff to work with. This is the science that will help me create an amazing ceremony for you.

1. How did you first met? Go on tell me the truth and don't forget to include approximate dates so I know the timeline of your relationship.
